BENGAL LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 524L.A.—4th March 1944.—With reference to the footnote at the end of the Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Agricultural Income-tax Bill, 1943, published with notification No. 361L.A., dated the 14th February 1944, in Part IV of the Calcutta Gazette of the 17th February 1944, it is hereby notified for general information that Mr. Mirza Abdul Hafiz, Member, Bengal Legislative Assembly, has subsequently submitted the following minute of dissent.

K. Ali Afzal,
Secretary to the Bengal Legislative Assembly.

Minute bf Dissent on the Select Committee Report of Bengal Agricultural Income-tax Bill, 1943, by Maulvi Mirza Abdul Hafiz, M.L.A.

Although I have agreed with many points of the report but still there are some in which case I most respectfully differ. I have tried to note some of them as follows though in a great haste. I reserve also the right to file amendments later on when required:—

1. With respect to the partial dedication, e.g., wakf-al-al-aulad—wakf for the family discendants has not been exempted from the operation of this Act as that portion only of the agricultural income actually applied to religious and charitable purposes has been exempted. Its result would be I apprehend that the public wakf far to speak of the private wakf the tendency of making which has already been decreased to a greater extent would very seldom be made by the generous Muslims and the wakf henceforth made still existing in tottering condition would gradually cease to exist. It also can be said that the people may be allowed to public charity only overlooking that to the family descendants. But that is unpractical and if so frequently made by a large number of people it would create a chaos and anomaly in the society increasing the number of labouring class and converting the nearest and dearest ones of the wakf executors into the day labourers. So in any case it won't be beneficial if the private wakf be not exempted.

2. The agricultural income of a wife or minor child derived from land transferred directly or indirectly by the husband or father shall be deemed to be the agricultural income of the latter and consequently be taxable under this Act. This would put a barrier to the normal course freely used so long specially among the Muslims. According to Muhammedan Law there is no joint family system and so the property once

Finance Statement of Provincial and Central Co-operative Banks in the Presidency of Bengal for the half year ending 31st December 1942.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 10382.—28th December 1943.—The accompanying Finance Statements of Provincial and Central Co-operative Banks in the Presidency of Bengal for the half year ending 31st December 1942 are published for general information.

C. A. Ali,

incorporated under this Act on or after the 15th day of January, 1937, shall commence business unless shares have been allotted to an amount sufficient to yield a sum of at least fifty thousand rupees as working capital, and unless a declaration duly verified by an affidavit signed by the directors and the manager that such a sum has been received by way of paid up capital has been filed with the registrar.

(2) No banking company, whether incorporated in or outside British India, if incorporated on or after the 15th day of January, 1937, shall, after the expiry of two years from the commencement of the Indian Companies (Amendment) Act, 1944, carry on business in British India unless it satisfies the following conditions, namely:—

(a) that the subscribed capital of the company is not less than half the authorised capital, and the paid up capital is not less than half the subscribed capital, and

(b) that the capital of the company consists of ordinary shares only, or ordinary shares and such preference shares as may have been issued before the commencement of the Indian Companies (Amendment) Act, 1944, only, and

(c) that the voting rights of all shareholders are strictly proportionate to the contribution made by the shareholder, whether a preference shareholder or an ordinary shareholder, to the paid up capital of the company."

4. Amendment of section 277L, Act VII of 1913.—In sub-section (4) of section 277L of the said Act, after the word, figures and letter "section 277H" the words, figures and letters "section 277HH, section 277I" shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Certain undesirable features in the structure and management of banking companies have of late come to notice, such as—

(i) the appointment of managing directors or managers on long-term contracts on payment of remuneration by commission or a share in the profits.

(ii) the fixation of the authorised capital at a very high figure as compared with the subscribed and paid up capital,

(iii) the possession of large voting rights by an individual or a small group of individuals, usually partly-paid ordinary or deferred shareholders.

The first of these is contrary to the spirit of section 277H of the Indian Companies Act, 1913, though not at present expressly prohibited. The second gives the public a false impression of the status and importance of the bank. The third enables an individual or a small group of individuals to concentrate in his or their hands the control of the companies' activities, thereby facilitating the undertaking of unsafe or speculative business, to the detriment of the interests of the depositors.

2. It is desirable to remove these objectionable features by suitable amendments of the Indian Companies Act, 1913. At the same time, it is considered that some time should be given to the existing banking companies, which may be affected by the amendments, to adjust themselves to the requirements of the amended law.

3. The Bill makes the necessary provisions with a view to meeting the objects mentioned above.
